Alvaro Mendaña left Callao
Peru in 1567 with 2 ships and 150 men. They headed west

On the 80th day they saw land &
dark - colored people carrying bows & arrows.
It was one of the Solomon Islands
(north of Australia). He named it YSAEL.
Later he landed on Guadalcanal, another of the islands. The people were unfriendly.

A hurricane came up. The sails were blown to bits. They got lost. At last heading East they came to the shore on the coast of Lower California.

Later they sailed south to Callao, Peru. Out of the 150 men, only 30 were left. On his 2nd trip out, he could not find the Solomon Islands.
